

2023 Eligibility & IE State Qualifier Timeline

February 22th – Last day to turn in TCFL Eligibility Forms – Eligibility List for State Qualifiers Form. (We need verification students entered one TCFL Open or TCFL Congress tournament during the '22 -'23 school year. The Novice Debate and Novice IE Tournaments do not count.) Coaches only need to list one event the student entered. Only those vying for a Bernebei Award need to list all 6 or 7 events your students entered.

March 6th – March 14th – Coaches need to begin entering ISBN#'s and script titles on tabroom (HI, DI, Duo/ Titles of OI & Subject matter of POI). Coaches should also enter all Original speech titles (Expos, OO, OA, OPP). Last day for entering competitors is March 14th by 11:55pm. Impromptu & Extemp require no paperwork.

March 14th – Coaches will send Bobby a list of students who should be protected. 1st indicates they placed 1st- 3rd in their event either at invitationals or in our league. 2nd indicates they placed 4th or below in a final round of an invitational or in our league. Priority will be given to the 1's when it comes to placements. Remember, only the 1st round is protected by priority. All other rounds are determined by rankings in the round (robert.lebeda@gmail.com).

March 15th – Bobby will send out the panelings for the coaches to check.

NOTE: The 2023 State Tournament will be held April 21- 23. Students who are unavailable to attend on these dates are ineligible to compete in the qualification tournaments.

There are kids who enter quals for the thrill of competing, or for bragging rights, or for the NFL points, or for the beautiful qualifying plaque, and for whatever reason, don't really intend to go to States. Some forge their parents' signatures and then you find out after the fact that the parents will not let them go, or their grades have fallen and they are academically ineligible to compete. We've heard it all. If your school prom or another big event conflicts with States, make sure your students are willing to sacrifice that for States in the event they qualify. Note: TOC may conflict—make sure your circuit debaters know that. They have a choice to make!

It is not only a constitutional violation to compete at a qualifier if the speaker is not committed to attending States, it is highly unethical and unfair to every other league speaker in that event. Every qualifier wins a dearly coveted league spot at States, and those speakers fortunate enough to qualify should dedicate themselves to representing TCFL at the state tournament to the best of their ability and hopefully, bring home a state title. MAKE SURE YOUR STUDENTS AND THEIR FAMILIES UNDERSTAND THE SERIOUSNESS OF THIS COMMITMENT.

You will have a very short window to register your qualifiers on the state online registration website (www.tabroom.com). They are due Fri. Mar. 31; fees & forms due one week later on 4/7!
